

14 April 1952

William E. Ward, assistant in East Indian Art, is arranging the course, Art Through Travel, which will begin April 23, with three weekly Wednesday sessions at 8.15 p.m. at The Cleveland Museum of Art, Free to the public. He is one of Cleveland's most traveled citizens and will give the opening lecture on The Near East.

Dorothy Shepherd, Associate Curator of Textiles of the Museum, who specialized in the Islamic textiles of Spain and has spent much time in that country, and also in France, will give the second program, on those two countries, April 30.

Ruth Adomeit, daughter of George G. Adomeit the artist, and herself an ardent globe trotter, will be the speaker, on Mexico, May 7.

All these travelers are expert color photographers and will show the pictures they have taken which illustrate their subjects.
